

Blessing of the Animals

Oct 1 at 2pm

Join us for a Buddhist ceremony honoring the rescued farm animals at the Woodstock Farm Animal Sanctuary, and all animals and beings that suffer throughout the world.

Khenpo Ugyen Tenzin (a resident lama at Karma Triyana Dharmachakra monastery in Woodstock NY), and his attendant Lama Tashi Dorji, will lead a practice of Chenrezik, the Buddha of Love and Compassion. The ceremony will be performed in Tibetan with an English translation.

This date of October 1st also aligns with the celebration of St. Francis of Assisi, the patron saint of animals, Mahatma Gandhi's birthday, and World Farm Animals Day. Come beforehand or afterwards for a farm tour. In the event of rain the ceremony will be performed in our largest barn.

WOODSTOCK FARM ANIMAL SANCTUARY

35 Van Wagner Road, Willow, NY
Off 212, 8.5 miles west of downtown Woodstock
For more information call (845) 679-5955
or go to www.WoodstockSanctuary.org

